Chillicothe, Ill. — Chillicothe native Alice "Alex" Eilers will speak tonight at the Chillicothe Public Library about her upcoming adventure this January in Antarctica.

She will use an interactive presentation to show about the land she will visit, the animals she will see, including the Weddell seals she will study.

Eilers currently works in Memphis, Tenn.

To RSVP for the program, which begins at 6:30 p.m. in the public meeting room and will last an hour, call the library at 274-2719.

For more information, visit the library's website.
